

Prevalence of epilepsy in Bangladesh: A national household survey

National Institute of Neurosciences & Hospital in collaboration with WHO, Dhaka Office, has conducted a nationally representative population-based cross-sectional household survey among the Bangladeshi population of all ages (except children aged < 1 month) from January 2017 to May 2017. The following questionnaire was used in this survey (attached).